

Living Care Disclosure Statement Prospectus Instructions

The following outline describes, in general, the subject matter to be covered in a typical disclosure statement and the extent of coverage necessary pursuant to the Living Care Disclosure Act, 1976 PA 440, as amended (the “Act”) and Rules.

The purpose of the disclosure statement is to inform prospective purchasers fully of all material facts concerning life interests, long-term leases and the facilities offering such contracts. The disclosure statement should be written in narrative form in CLEAR and CONCISE language and should be set in a type that is of a size, form and character that can be easily read by elderly persons.

The disclosure statement should be used in accordance with the requirements of the Act, the rules, and any effective order(s) of the Office of Financial and Insurance Services (OFIS).

The rules and sections 8, 22, and 23 of the Act, set forth the requirement to be incorporated in the disclosure statement. One copy of the disclosure statement is to be delivered to the OFIS together with the registration application.

NOTE THAT THE NAME OF THE OFFICE OF FINANCIAL & INSURANCE SERVICES (the “OFIS”), WITH THE EXCEPTION OF THE DISCLAIMERS NOTED BELOW, MAY BE USED ONLY UPON WRITTEN APPROVAL OF THE OFIS.

Cover Page
